□ 1840

Mr. CROWLEY changed his vote from "nay" to "yea."

Mr. SHERMAN changed his vote from "present" to "yea."

So (two-thirds not having voted in favor thereof) the motion was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

Stated for:

Ms. STABENOW. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 552, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall Nos. 550, 551, and 552, I was unavoidably delayed due to mechanical problems on Delta Airlines flight to Washington, DC. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 6, 1999, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mrs. THURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the subject of my special order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

TRIBUTE TO DR. JOHN LOMBARDI

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida (Mrs. THURMAN) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mrs. THURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am here today along with other Members of the Florida congressional delegation to pay tribute to an accomplished leader and a very special man, Dr. John Lombardi. Today is Dr. Lombardi's last day as president of the University of Florida.

I remember thinking to myself when Dr. Lombardi came on board in 1990 that we were very lucky to have him. He came to the University of Florida from Johns Hopkins University where he excelled as provost and vice president for academic affairs.

□ 1845

Before that, he spent 20 years at Indiana University, where he held a variety of teaching and administrative positions, including Director of Latin American Studies, Dean of International Programs, and Dean of Arts and Sciences.

These positions at distinguished universities helped to shape Dr. Lombardi into the innovative dynamic leader he proved to be while at the top post of the University of Florida.

Just to highlight some of his accomplishments and to help explain why he will be missed so much, Dr. Lombardi led the University of Florida through a decade of great accomplishment. Following his vision, the University of Florida waged an amazing 5-year private fund-raising drive that brought in
